

Heading off on new path

BRIAN LaPETER/Chronicle

Sherry Knight, manager of The Path thrift store, spent a lot of time Thursday greeting loyal customers before the store closes today. The facility reopens in a couple of months in a building the charitable organization bought on State Road 44 near Inverness.

