Lions Club to PATH

"What matters."

■ "I know United Way is important to the community and to The Path of Citrus County because United Way administers FEMA money to provide emergency food and shelter. The Path is one of the Citrus County organizations to receive this money for emergency shelter in local motels. The Path also provides a Christian living environment for anyone in Citrus County who finds themselves without a home. Community matters to all of us."

DuWayne Sipper

WALTER CARLSON/Chronicle
