Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide a Christian living environment that allows true rehabilitation. To allow long term stays for life changing, biblical teachings to take effect. To encourage the work ethic, for those without a home in Citrus County.

BEAUTY FOR ASHES

“God Brought Me to the Path”

For years, my life had been a series of bad choices. My addictions and the results of those bad choices had sent me in a downward spiral—fast! I lost everything. I wasn't working and I'd lost my place to live. I was lost and had nowhere to go, no one left to turn to. I felt completely broken and empty. I just couldn't live that way anymore.

In my desperation, I called out to God—“Please help me!” I knew I needed God in my life and I knew about the Path, but it wasn't until I'd lost everything and everyone I had for God to bring me to the point of complete surrender. I was broken and in that brokenness, I turned to God. I needed God and I needed to change my life. I prayed from the deepest part of my soul. I prayed & prayed & prayed! I finally became willing to let God into my life and into my heart. I surrendered and God led me to the Path.

From the very first day I arrived here, I've felt a peace and a safety I've never known. Emptiness was being filled inside me. I can't imagine my life without God today. I've been set free from my addictions for five months now! I prayed and God took those desires away. But more than that, I've learned to live a life that's pleasing to God. God not only changed me on the outside, but He's changed me on the inside—my thoughts, my desires, and my heart. He's given me hope and a purpose—forgiveness and a new spirit. He's changed me and saved my life. He gives me all the strength I need. —Denise

From the Heart of the Director

In the picture is the ink print of a baby that was born in the hospital while the mother was staying at the shelter. When she brought the baby to the shelter, there were many people who wanted to see the baby and hold it. We were not concerned at that moment the problems the mother was facing. Only that here was a precious new life that we were in charge of taking care of and this child was innocent. The staff was quite proud that God was using us to help bring this child into the world. We were also quite proud that God was using us to help someone in dire need. Then I thought this morning of all of the good deeds, buildings and families that are long gone from history and they have not left a sign that they were even here. What were they alive for? The answer is so simple that we sometimes hate the answer. We are here to do one most important thing, touch God. No matter how hard it is or what it takes, nothing else is important. Once touched, we live a life to please Him and in turn this life fulfills us. We pray that all are born again and touch our Creator.
